We Appeal to You

Please help us help them

On 17 December 2008 we announced that Grégoire, everybody's favourite 'Old Man', had passed away.

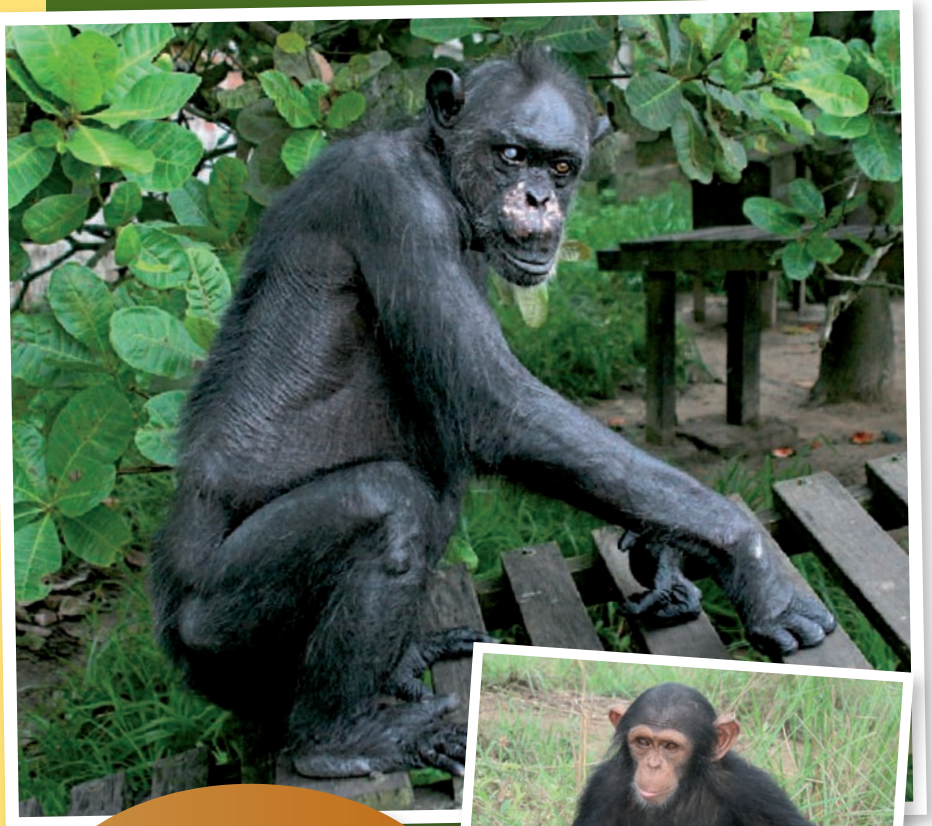
Although this was terribly sad news for everyone who new him or had followed his story, thanks to your support he had enjoyed his last eleven years at the Tchimpounga Sanctuary in Congo. After surviving more than forty years in solitary display in a barren cage at Brazzaville Zoo and then being airlifted to the Sanctuary he was at last given a second chance and he made the most of it. The younger chimps adored him and he was very patient with them, happy to be with his own kind at last.

Grégoire – you were an inspiration to us all

Unfortunately there are many more chimpanzees like Grégoire who need our help.

Chimps like Kauka who are unable to return to the wild and therefore need our support to care for them for the rest of their lives. We ask you to please consider making a donation, no matter how small, to enable us to continue caring for these rescued orphans. There are over 140 chimpanzees at Tchimpounga each one with a tragic story behind its arrival at the Sanctuary.

Grégoire



Kauka

Your support, as always, is greatly appreciated.

THANK YOU
